

FRANCESCA BERTOLINO

GRADUATE GEOLOGIST 📍 COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

◦ DETAILS ◦

Copenhagen
Denmark

francescabertolino97@gmail.com

Place of birth
Magenta (MI), Italy

◦ SKILLS ◦

Fast Learner
Flexibility and Adaptability
Leadership and Teamwork
Judgement and Decision Making

◦ LANGUAGES ◦

Italian

Spanish

English

Portuguese

👤 PROFILE

📍 Enthusiastic and passionate Geology student now focused on the Geomicrobiology of volcanoes and the field of Astrobiology.

🎓 EDUCATION

📍 Master in Geology-Geoscience, IT University of Copenhagen, Denmark

August 2020 — Present

Specialisation: Solid Earth Geochemistry and Petrology.

Thesis title: The geomicrobiology of the Canary Islands: possible implications for Martian volcanoes.

📍 Bachelor in Geology, University of Milano-Bicocca, Milan, Italy

October 2016 — July 2020

Grade: 97/110

Thesis title: Planktonic foraminifera as paleotemperature indicators in the Malta Plateau area (Late Quaternary).

📍 Scientific High School diploma, I.S.S. Pascal, Romentino, Italy

September 2011 — June 2016

📍 Exchange year, Colegio Quisqueya, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

August 2014 — July 2015

📁 EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

📍 Rider at Pizzeria MaMeMi & Wine Bar, Copenhagen

April 2021 — Present

📍 Courier Partner at Wolt, Copenhagen

January 2021 — April 2021

📍 Twirling coach at Twirling Club Romentino, Romentino

January 2017 — June 2020

📍 Vintager at Cantina Comerio, Sizzano

September 2017

👥 INTERNSHIPS

📍 Volcanology at GeoTenerife, Canary Islands

August 2021 — September 2021

I spent four weeks on the island of Tenerife attending:

- Science Communication training by Andy Ridgway and Hannah Little Senior Lecturers, UWE Bristol.
- Volcanology fieldwork with Dr Richard James Brown, Associate Professor, Durham University
- Volcanic geophysics fieldwork with Dr Pablo Gonzalez, Volcanologist, CSIC

🍃 EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Volunteering at SEEDS Iceland, Egilsstaðir, Iceland
September 2018
Project n° 116 "Forestry in the far East of Iceland"
 - Paths construction with the use of tree trunks, hammer, nails, drill
 - Pine cones collection for reforestation
- Volunteering at AFS Intercultural Programs, Novara
January 2017 — January 2018
 - Organisation of training meetings for students going abroad
 - Group activities
- Competitive Twirling Athlete at FITw , Italy
2008 — 2016
Playing this sport helped me to develop:
 - Resilience
 - Constancy and precicion
 - Competitiveness

✦ COURSES

- English course, Lynn University, Miami
July 2012
- English course, DCU University, Dublin
July 2011
- English course, Switzerland
July 2010